

Sinclair Broadcasting is violating its public trust by pursuing a one sided political agenda in broadcasting the smear piece against John Kerry. This is what happens when the government allows the concentration of media in a few hands. they are serving their own self interests, not the public's.